WELCOME BISHOP VETTER!

Bishop Vetter will visit SPIRIT OF CHRIST on PENTECOST SUNDAY, May 19 at the 8:00 am Mass.

Spirit of Christ Parishioners are asked to determine how we will welcome him:

Brunch after Mass? OR regular coffee and donuts?

Our Pastoral Council representatives, Jerry Gilmore and Don Sax will discern with parishioners how to proceed.

Fr. Ed

Bishop Vetter has announced that the DIocese of HELENA DEPOSIT AND LOAN RESTORATION TRUST, set up by Bishop George Thomas, as part of the Diocesan Bankruptcy Plan, is now making an initial distribution of 3% to those parishes who held deposits in the Diocese of Helena Deposit and Loan Fund at the time of bankruptcy in 2014.

In the long term parishes who held money in the D & L Fund will see them repaid.

Both Blessed Trinity and Spirit of Christ had funds deposited in that account, just prior to the bankruptcy:

Blessed Trinity total: $43,149.40

Spirit of Christ total: $82,100.29

We have recently received the first 3% repayment of these funds:

Blessed Trinity: $1,294.48

Spirit of Christ: $2,463.01

AS A REMINDER... The DEPOSIT AND LOAN RESTORATION TRUST was established by the Bankruptcy Court in an effort to provide financial relief for Diocesan entities who collectively held $12,024,963. in deposits at the time the Chapter 11 Reorganization was filed. These deposits became liabilities of the Trust. The assets of the Trust include the loans payable to the former Deposit and Loan fund, valued at $4,257,067, and the development rights on approximately 75 acres of cemetery land in Helena. Now, nearly all of the smaller Diocesan loans have been paid in full and the larger loans have entered into negotiated 10-year repayment plans. In addition the Trust is a major equity owner in a Hilton Home 2 Suits Hotel which was developed for the long-term benefit of the Diocesan depositors on 5 of the 75 acres. The Trust continues to look for development opportunities with the long-term goal of full repayment.

The Vine and the Branches

Sunday, May 19

In October we heard Jesus ask us, his disciples “Who do you say I am?” To help us to more fully answer this question, each month we have explored Jesus’ identity as expressed in the “I AM” statements found in John’s Gospel. We have discovered Jesus in the Way, the Truth, and the Life, in the Bread of Life, in the Good Shepherd, in the Sheepgate, in the Light of the World, and the in Resurrection and the Life. We have had several guides in this journey—Casey Dunning, Fr. Ed Hislop, Dr. Katherine Griner, and Matt Reichert. We explored the identity of Christ not only to know him better, but to find our own identity in Christ.

We wrap up our year of faith formation with the final “I AM” statement in John’s Gospel—“I am the vine and you are the branches.” Connected to each other through Christ we will explore our identity as members of the Body of Christ and our mission to bear fruit for the wine of the eternal banquet. This leads us to our journey with the universal Church and what it means to walk together. Come and be a part of this important conversation!

All are Welcome!

Youth Group
Wed., May 8, 7-8:30 pm

As we wind down the school year, the calendar is full of events. We will have our year end party with food and fun and talk about summer plans. Come and join us and celebrate another year in the books and look forward to what is ahead.

Children's Liturgy of the Word
Sunday, April 28, 10 am

Children ages 3-10 are invited to participate in Children’s Liturgy of the Word during the 10 am Mass. They are dismissed at the beginning of the liturgy of the word. We gather in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to hear the readings and Gospel from the Children’s Lectionary. A reflection on the Gospel is given at their level of understanding, followed by prayers of the faithful. Children return to the main assembly during the offertory procession. Parents and/or older siblings are invited to accompany young children if desired.

Baptism
Preparation for Infants
Coming Soon!

We will be holding formation sessions for parents who would like to have their child baptized soon. This preparation allows parents to gain a deeper understanding of the sacrament, your importance in your child’s growth in faith, and the role of the parish community in order to more fully celebrate your child’s baptism.

Please contact Judy Cooney (406) 880-0372 or judyc@blessedtrinitymissoula.com if you would like to take part in these preparation sessions. We would like to get a group of parents together so that you can share this part of your child’s faith journey.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Vine of Life

Lord Jesus,
you are the vine of life,
we are but branches
yearning to give fruit.
Grant that the Holy Spirit
may nurture your people
to remain in you

so that we may give the life
that you have shared with us
to those we meet,
allowing them to be transformed.
You live and reign with God the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Bearing Fruit

Today's readings: Acts 9:26–31; Psalm 22:26–27, 28, 30, 31–31; 1 John 3:18–24; John 15:1–8. “Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing,” Jesus tells his followers in today’s Gospel. Jesus is the vine of life. The father is the one caring for the vine. As branches, we are capable of bearing fruit. In the first readings, we hear of Paul, who had once persecuted Christians, seeking a place with the disciples. Paul changed his ways and became a participant in the vine of life.

When Paul turned from his former way of life, he “spoke out boldly in the name of Jesus.” After Paul’s conversion experience, he sought to keep the commandments and remain in Jesus’ love. Only by remaining in Jesus was Paul able to preach and bear fruit, for as the Gospel reading states, without Jesus, nothing can be done. How do you envision your connection to God the vine grower and to Jesus the vine? Is there anything in your life that you need God to prune so that you can bear more fruit? Ask Jesus to cut away that which impedes your growth in relationship to him. Reflect this week on what it means to remain in God. Do you consider that the good that you do is dependent on your relationship with God? When you stray from your connection with God, does the good that you do seem to falter?

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, April 29

Surrender

“Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him,” Jesus told the disciples at the Last Supper. From her youth, St. Catherine of Siena, whose memorial the Church celebrates today, portrayed her love for God through service. Not only did she minister to the poor, the sick, and the imprisoned, but she also confronted bishops and the pope and called for reforms in the Church. Today we ask St. Catherine of Siena to be our companion as we show our love for God through our work in the world. Today’s readings: Acts 14:5–18; Psalm 115:1–2, 3–4, 15–16; John 14:21–26.

Tuesday, April 30

True Peace

Not long before inviting the faithful at Mass to offer one another a sign of peace, the priest says, “Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church.” When the faithful offer one another a sign of peace, it is Christ’s peace, not their individual peace. In today’s Gospel, Jesus highlights the difference in the offerings of peace, saying, “Not as the world gives do I give it to you.” Discussing your spiritual struggles during the sacrament of penance can bring one Christ’s peace. Check your parish’s schedule for the celebration of the sacrament of penance. Today’s readings: Acts 14:19–28; Psalm 145:10–11, 12–13ab, 21; John 14:27–31a.

Wednesday, May 1

Faithful

Today we celebrate the optional Memorial of St. Joseph the Worker. Little is known about St. Joseph, but the few verses of Scripture that mention him show his obedience to God and the care he gave to Mary and Jesus. Pray that, like St. Joseph, you “bear much fruit” so that God is glorified. Today’s readings: Acts 15:1–6; Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4ab, 4cd–5; John 15:1–8.

Thursday, May 2, 2024

A Universal Message

After telling the disciples to keep his commandments, Jesus explains, “I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.” For many, obeying the commandments may seem burdensome, but Jesus reveals that doing so is the way to remain in Jesus’ love and so is the path to joy. What does it mean for the Lord’s joy to be in you? Have you ever considered that God finds joy in you? Today’s readings: Acts 15:7–21; Psalm 96:1–2a, 2b–3, 10; John 15:9–11.

Friday, May 3

Feast of Sts. Philip and James

Today, on the Feast of Sts. Philip and James, Apostles, the Church honors two of the earliest followers of Jesus. At the beginning of John’s Gospel, Jesus finds Philip and instructs him, “Follow me” (1:45). Philip wastes no time spreading the news of the messiah and encourages Nathanael to “come and see.” May we take to heart the example of these apostles and invite others to come to know Christ. Today’s readings: Acts 1 Corinthians 15: 1–8; Psalm 19:2–3, 4–5; John 14:6–14.

Saturday, May 4

Do You Accept?

The words “serve the Lord with gladness,” in today’s psalm shows the disposition one should have even when rejected and persecuted for living as Christians. As Jesus sets before the disciples the work of spreading the Gospel, he tells them that they will be treated as he has been: “If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours.” Are you able to live in gratitude to God even when others revile you? Pray to the Holy Spirit for such courage. Today’s readings: Acts 16:1–10; Psalm 100:1b–2, 3, 5; John 15:18–21.
