The Light of the World

Living Faith at Home, Sharing faith with others, Welcoming friends and neighbors to faith alive.

We welcome MATT REICHERT to lead us in this discussion. Matt has served the church in a variety of capacities. As a pastoral musician and liturgist, Matt has worked in parishes, schools, and university campus ministry. As an educator, he has been an administrator, board member, middle and high school teacher, and undergraduate professor. He is a frequent workshop leader and has presented at parishes, dioceses, and conferences across the country including the NATIONAL PASTORAL MUSICIANS (NPM) conference and the LOS ANGELES RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CONGRESS. He was also the founding host of NPM's "Ministry Monday" podcast. Matt holds a BA in History and English from Saint John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota and two Masters degrees from the University of Notre Dame in Education and Leadership. Matt is married and the father of four daughters.

Matt's enthusiastic spirit, insightful wisdom and deep faith inspires an awareness of Christ's love for all, reawakens the invitation to share that love and be a

"Light for the world."

Welcome Anabelle Angela Flaherty

as you enter these Lenten days in preparation for BAPTISM, CONFIRMATION AND FIRST EUCHARIST
at the Easter Vigil March 30, 2024.

As a 10 year old girl seeking Baptism with the support and encouragement of her family, Anabelle will be fully initiated into the Body of Christ, in accord with the ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION (which prescribes that children of catechetical age be baptized, confirmed and receive First Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil).

Embraced and affirmed by this faith community of Blessed Trinity and her family, Anabelle is to be immersed into the waters of eternal life, anointed with the Sacred Chrism of the Holy Spirit and nourished at the One Table with the Body and Blood of the Risen Christ.

Come, Anabelle, and take your place among us;
listen to the Lord as he speaks and join us in prayer.

COMMUNAL PENANCE: Tuesday, March 12, 2024 + 7:00 pm

AS A FAITHFUL PEOPLE WE NAME OUR SINS AND THE SINS OF THE WORLD.

AN "UNSEEN" MINISTRY

One of the "unseen" ministries of the liturgy is done by those who take care of the altar linen monthly, both washing and ironing. We are in need of at least one more person to help with this important ministry, the "holy wash," but would welcome more persons. The ministry takes 1-2 hours of time per week and requires only standard washer and dryer and an ironing board/iron. Usually, the wash consists of the purificators (the napkins used for the cup), the finger towels, and other altar linens. There are a few special procedures and "tips" to learn from those who have been doing this ministry regularly. Certain months of the year require more attention and a bit of extra time, and other months are less demanding. If you are interested, willing or would just like more information, please contact Sister Mary Jo, (406) 721-2405, or by email:

maryjoq@blessedtrinitymissoula.org.

OVERCOMING HUNGER

In Akwangagwei, Uganda, the climate is very hot and dry. Farmers in this region depend heavily on the rainy season for a successful harvest. But lately—due to the changing climate—the rain has been coming later than it used to and is more inconsistent. Sometimes when it does rain, it causes flooding and ruins the crops. Learn how Adolf and Florence have taken the matter into their own hands, implementing new farming techniques they learned from a Catholic Relief Services program to improve their farm and fight against hunger in the community.

Whole Parish Faith Formation 2023-24

The Light of the World

Featuring Matt Reichert

Sunday, March 10

11:30–1:00 pm

In our next faith formation session, we continue our exploration of the “I AM” statements in John’s Gospel - “I AM the light of the world.” Light transforms all it touches, revealing what is around us, guiding us as we move through the world. How is Christ our light?

How are we to be light for others? Come and be a part of this important conversation.

We welcome Matt Reichert to lead us in a discussion about family and evangelization. Matt has served the church in a variety of capacities. As a pastoral musician and liturgist, Matt has worked in parishes, schools, and university campus ministry. As an educator, he has been an administrator, board member, middle and high school teacher, and undergraduate professor. He is a frequent workshop leader and has presented at parishes, dioceses, and conferences across the country including the National Pastoral Musicians (NPM) conference and the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress. He was also the founding host of NPM’s “Ministry Monday” podcast. Matt holds a BA in History and English from Saint John’s University in Collegeville, Minnesota and two Masters degrees from the University of Notre Dame in Education and Leadership.

Invite those you feel would be interested in this topic to join you. We are grateful to the Foundation for the Diocese of Helena for a grant to bring Matt Reichert to our parish. There is no cost to attend, but a goodwill offering will be accepted to help with additional costs.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Mar. 3 & 17, 10:00 am Mass

Children ages 3-10 are invited to participate in Children’s Liturgy of the Word during the 10 am Mass. They are dismissed at the beginning of the liturgy of the word. We gather in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to hear the readings and Gospel from the Children’s Lectionary. A reflection on the Gospel is given at their level of understanding, followed by prayers of the faithful (during which pets and grandparents receive much attention). Children return to the main assembly during the offertory procession. Parents and/or older siblings are invited to accompany young children if desired.

If you are interesting in being a part of this important ministry for our families and children, please contact Judy Cooney at the parish office.

Youth Group
Wed., Feb. 21, 7–8:30 pm

Our next regular meeting is Wed. March 13. We will have food, fun, and friends!

Thank you Cathy, Rihanna, Giada, Matthew, Michael, Martin, Sean, Alanna, Trent, Angela, and Gary for all you work on the Mardi Gras Breakfast. Thank you to all who support our youth group with your presence and donations!

Sticky Bun Recipe

Begin this recipe the night before. Great for Easter!

2 lbs. frozen rolls	1/2 c. butter (1 stick)
1 c. brown sugar	1 t. cinnamon
2 T. milk	2 small boxes (3.4 oz) vanilla
1/2 c. chopped nuts	COOK & SERVE pudding mix

Place 24 pieces of frozen dough in a greased 13x9” pan. In a saucepan, combine the remaining ingredients and cook over low heat until butter is melted and sauce is warmed through and well combined. Pour sauce over dough. Cover with greased plastic wrap and let rise in the refrigerator overnight. In morning, take pan out while oven preheats to 350F. Bake 20-25 min. until golden brown. Immediately flip hot buns over serving platter with care. Serve warm.

MISSOULA FOOD BANK

NEED OF THE WEEK: small bottles of cooking oil - We are searching for smaller, individual bottles of cooking oil to share with our customers. Have an extra bottle of olive, vegetable, or sesame oil? We'll take it all. Protein products are always welcome: canned meats, peanut butter, and beans. Also, anything that provides some variety for the things we purchase regularly, canned soups and canned vegetables in particular.

For the month of January Blessed Trinity contributed 202 pounds of food, paper products and personal care items. Thank you parishioners. And thanks to Hal and Rose Pulling for gathering and delivering it all to the Food Bank. We are grateful for your continued help. THANK YOU! The collection baskets are at the church entrances.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

I Surrender

Loving Father,
I come before you,
asking for your mercy.
May my faith be as strong as that of Abraham.
Grant me steadfastness this Lent, in my pursuit of a deeper prayer life.
Free me from obstacles
that keep me from you.
May I find peace in your presence.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Continued Change

Today's readings: Genesis 22:1–2, 9a, 10–13, 15–18; Psalm 116:10, 15, 16–17, 18–19; Romans 8:31b–34; Mark 9:2–10. In today's Gospel, Peter, James, and John glimpse Jesus' glory as he is transfigured before them on the mountaintop. Peter, intent on staying at the site of their beatific vision of Jesus, Moses, and Elijah, suggests that three tents be made. "Rabbi, it is good that we are here," he tells Jesus.

Each week we participate in a mystery as we take part in Sunday Mass. There, as the Eucharistic Prayer is prayed, the bread and the wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. But the elements of bread and wine are not all that are transformed during the liturgy. In the Eucharistic Prayer, it is also prayed that we "may become one body, one spirit in Christ." When we are especially attentive to the prayers, songs, and gestures of the liturgy, we may say to ourselves and one another, "It is good that we are here." Transformed by the liturgy, we leave the church to bring the presence of Christ and the Word of God into the world.

Just as the apostles could not stay with Jesus on the mountaintop, the faithful cannot remain in the church. As the Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy states, "The renewal in the eucharist of the covenant between the Lord and his people draws the faithful into the compelling love of Christ and sets them on fire." Our mission, as we leave the liturgy, is to testify to God's love, bringing hope to those facing difficult times. We make Christ known as we accompany others.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, February 26 Forgiven

“Forgive and you will be forgiven,” Jesus tells his followers in today’s Gospel. As Jesus preaches mercy, he explains that the actions of others will reflect our actions. Only if we are willing to forgive will we be forgiven. During this week, consider whom you need to forgive and from whom you need to request forgiveness. Today’s readings: Daniel 9:4b–10; Psalm 79:8–9, 11, 13; Luke 6:36–38.

Tuesday, February 27 A Just, Humble Life

Both the first reading and the Gospel today give instructions on how to live. In the reading from Isaiah, the Lord instructs “to make justice your aim,” aid the orphan and widow, and right wrongs. Jesus tells his followers to live with humility. “Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted.” When we do good things, we should not seek recognition. Today, strive to forward the kindnesses you have received. That might be done by buying coffee for a coworker, assisting a friend, or doing another’s chore. Such acts can be testimonies of God’s love. Today’s readings: Isaiah 1:10, 16–20; Psalm 50:8–9, 16bc–17, 21, 23; Matthew 23:1–12.

Wednesday, February 28 Distractions

Today we are reminded of what we are preparing for: Jesus’ passion, death, resurrection, and ascension. During this season we make promises of things we will sacrifice, yet sometimes we become distracted. We are being called to transform our hearts and our lives for the service of our Lord. Today sit with your family and discuss how all can remain attentive to the message of God. What are some of the distractions in your life? How can you overcome them? Today’s readings: Jeremiah 18:18–20; Psalm 31:5–6, 14, 15–16; Matthew 20:17–28.

Thursday, February 29 Making Good Choices

The Gospel from Luke today presents the story of the rich man who ignored the needs of the poor man lying at his door. After death, the poor Lazarus lived in comfort while the rich man was in torment. Our daily choices can lead us to God or away from God. Consider whose needs you ignore while allowing yourself to eat your fill. Today’s readings: Jeremiah 17:5–10; Psalm 1:1–2, 3, 4, 6; Luke 16:19–31.

Friday, March 1 Families

In today’s account of Joseph, the youngest son of Jacob, we see an example of jealousy building among brothers until they sell Joseph to foreigners. The eleven brothers appreciated neither their father’s preferential treatment of Joseph nor their brother’s dreams and wanted to be rid of him. Are there unresolved tensions in your family that are eroding relationships? Examine whether you play a part in the harm or healing in this family dynamic. Today’s readings: Genesis 37:3–4, 12–13a, 17b–28a; Psalm 105:16–17, 18–19, 20–21; Matthew 21:33–43, 45–46.

Saturday, March 2 The Love of God

It is no secret the lengths to which God goes to show us his love. We know he wants to be in relationship with us, but sometimes we are reluctant. The moment we say yes to the relationship, God showers us with many blessings. The psalm tells us that God overlooks shortcomings and forgives sins. Today recite the psalm, and with each verse, pause to feel the love and presence of God. Today’s readings: Micah 7:14–15, 18–20; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 9–10, 11–12; Luke 15:1–3, 11–32.
