Lenten Meal Blessing

We bless you, Lord, and we praise you, for you have given us this meal to share, provided by the earth and prepared by human hands. Help us remember those who cannot eat because of poverty or sickness. Let the brief hunger we feel this Lent make us hunger even more for justice. May this meal strengthen us to do your will. Blessed be God forever.

ALL: BLESSED BE GOD FOR EVER.

—Diane Macalintel, The Work of Your Hands

Shepherds of the Good Shepherd

We offer unique olive wood religious works from the holy city of Bethlehem in efforts to provide for the Christian community in the Holy Land. Your purchase -however- is an act of generosity toward many families who depend on our ministry.

What is a CRS Rice Bowl?

CRS Rice Bowl is a staple on the table of Catholic families across the country during Lent. Rice Bowl has been a part of Blessed Trinity+Spirit of Christ Lenten journey for many years.

This simple cardboard box is a tool for collecting Lenten alms—and comes with a LENTEN CALENDAR that guides us through the 40 days of Lent with activities, reflections and stories.

Pick up your Rice Bowl box
(the Lenten calendar is inside) with
The Bulletin today.

Return it on HOLY THURSDAY, filled with Alms for OPERATION RICE BOWL.

CRS Rice Bowl invites Catholics and faith communities in the United States to encounter God and our global family throughout Lent by practicing the pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Lenten alms donated through CRS Rice Bowl support the work of CRS in more than 120 different countries each year. Twenty-five percent of donations to CRS Rice Bowl stay in the local diocese, supporting hunger and poverty alleviation efforts. Since its inception in 1975, CRS Rice Bowl has raised more than $330 million. For more go to <https://www.crsricebowl.org/>

FOR REFLECTION

During this holy time, we are called to pause and pay closer attention to our relationship with God and our neighbors. Reflect on how the Lenten pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving can guide your journey and how the Eucharist helps us to live in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the word.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Special thanks to our Parish Youth and Parents for a fabulous Mardi Gras breakfast last Sunday! It was so good (especially the sticky buns) and loads of fun. We are also grateful to all of you who came to breakfast and supported our Parish Youth.

Thank You!

...to these awesome volunteers who made our recent Whole Parish Gathering dinner so delicious and delightful: Cathy Marshall (cook & co-ordinator extraordinaire), Carolina & David Bridges, Pat Wegner, Rosann & Don Collette, Ann Karsky, Carol Buerman, Pat Logan, Barb Shubert, Christina Hands, PJ Hanson, Maggie Ricci, Stephan Licitra, Kathy & Pat Vaughan. You are all greatly appreciated!

The Sheepgate: Trespass and Forgiveness

Sunday, February 18
11:30–1:00 pm

Thank you to Dr. Katherine Greiner for a wonderful reflection on the Good Shepherd!

In our next faith formation session, we will reflect on the other “I am” statement in chapter 10 of John’s Gospel where Jesus tells us “I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.” The gate is a threshold where we pass from one world into another—sometimes coming in and sometimes going out. During our time together we will explore this image— what does it mean to be in and what does it mean to go out? Who or what are the thieves and robbers that try to avoid the gate? We will also explore the topics of sin and forgiveness, truly difficult topics in this (and every other) age, remembering that Jesus came to save us from our sins and is the door to salvation.

As we enter Lent, we assess what gets in the way of us following the voice of the Shepherd, so that we may “have life and have it more abundantly.” All are needed and welcome to join in this important discussion.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Mar. 3 & 17, 10:00 am Mass

Children ages 3-10 are invited to participate in Children’s Liturgy of the Word during the 10 am Mass. They are dismissed at the beginning of the liturgy of the word. We gather in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to hear the readings and Gospel from the Children’s Lectionary. A reflection on the Gospel is given at their level of understanding, followed by the Creed and prayers of the faithful (during which pets and grandparents receive much attention). Children return to the main assembly during the offertory procession. Parents and/or older siblings are invited to accompany young children if desired.

Seeing the Word

Thursday, Feb. 22, 1:00 pm

Seeing the Word meets monthly to reflect on the illuminations of the St. John’s Bible. In February we will be meditating on the illuminations Calming the Storm and the Marginalia in Matthew.

Please contact Louise (406-251-5363) for details. Books available from Judy Cooney at the parish office.

Youth Group
Wed., Feb. 21, 7–8:30 pm

Our next regular meeting will be the Wednesday after Ash Wednesday. We will take a deep dive into Lent and why this season is so important to us in our spiritual lives.

Thank you to Matthew and Sean who helped with the Junior High Retreat! We had 23 retreat participants this year. A fun time was had by all!

Thank you Cathy, Rihanna, Giada, Matthew, Michael, Martin, Sean, Alanna, Trent, Angela, and Gary for all you work on the Mardi Gras Breakfast. Thank you to all who support our youth group with your presence and donations!

MISSOULA FOOD BANK

NEED OF THE WEEK: Gluten-free products! This week we are in need of more gluten free options to distribute to our neighbors with dietary restrictions! Protein products are always welcome: canned meats, peanut butter, and beans. Also, anything that provides some variety for the things we purchase regularly, canned soups and canned vegetables in particular.

For the month of January Blessed Trinity contributed 202 pounds of food, paper products and personal care items. Thank you parishioners. And thanks to Hal and Rose Pulling for gathering and delivering it all to the Food Bank. We are grateful for your continued help. THANK YOU! The collection baskets are at the church entrances.

It's Day 4 of Volunteer Appreciation Week! Today we want to shout out some extra thanks to our Senior Nutrition volunteers. They are our community connectors, visiting our neighbors each month to deliver grocery boxes full of nourishment. These volunteers spend hours each month packing up delivery boxes with love and care, ensuring that all our aging neighbors have enough to eat. Thank you ROOTS and Fresh Food Box volunteers - we are so grateful to each and every one of you!

Lunch Bunch @ China Garden

CHANGE OF DATE:
4th WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1pm

We will be celebrating Chinese New Year this month by gathering at China Gardens Restaurant located at 2100 Stephens at 1pm. on Wednesday February 28. If you plan to attend, please notify Joan Dodge at 406 239 0930 or kingsburyinmt@gmail.com. Joan will be out of town from February 9 to February 24. Please let her know ASAP. Thanks. Hope to see you there.

FYI... At Home with the Word is available in large print. Just call or talk to Carol in the office if you'd like one ordered.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

In His Mercy

Loving Father,
you sent a rainbow
as a sign of your mercy
and of our relationship with you.
Soften our hardened hearts.
May the mercy that we show others

be a sign that through the waters of baptism you live in us and that we are your adopted children.
May our Lenten prayer and sacrifice
fortify us to continue your mission on earth.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Abundant Mercy

Today's readings: Genesis 9:8–15; Psalm 25:4–5, 6–7, 8–9; 1 Peter 3:18–22; Mark 1:12–15. “See, I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every little creature.” With these words, God shows his love as he promises anew to be in relationship with creation. In the reading from the First Letter of Peter, we hear that God saved the eight who were aboard the ark through the waters of the flood and now saves us through the waters of baptism. God, whose love brought us into being, seeks relationship and communion with us. To reconcile us with him, he sent his Son, who prepared for his mission by fasting for forty days in the desert.

During the forty days of Lent, many of us give in to temptation and find ourselves repenting time and again. Knowing that God is merciful and understands our shortcomings, we can always resolve to begin anew. God yearns for relationship with us and does not give up on us.

As one of your Lenten practices, you may have chosen to read the day's Scriptures attentively. Try to approach the readings with fresh eyes willing to allow the text to relate to your life today. Familiar texts can speak to us in the new circumstances, challenges, joys, and sorrows of our lives. All we need is an openness to the Word. God's Word is always relevant.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, February 19 The Neighbor

In Matthew 22:36–39, Jesus tells the scholar about the two greatest commandments: loving God and loving neighbor. Today's passage from Matthew depicts how our actions show love for both God and neighbor. Inviting the sheep on his right to the kingdom, the Son of Man recounts that their feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and welcoming the stranger also fed, clothed, and welcomed Christ. When a reminder is needed on how God expects us to treat our neighbor, return to this passage. Today's readings: Leviticus 19:1–2, 11–18; Psalm 19:8–10, 15; Matthew 25:31–46.

Tuesday, February 20 Patiently Waiting

Both the psalm and Gospel show us how to pray. Portraying the need for trust, the psalmist sings, “I sought the LORD and he answered me, / delivered me from all my fears.” In the Gospel, Jesus tells his followers that they need to come to God with humility as they pray that his will be done. Instead of expecting instant gratification from prayer requests, keep in mind that God acts in his time, not ours. Be patient and trust; God will not leave you alone. Today's readings: Isaiah 55:10–11; Psalm 34:4–7, 16–19; Matthew 6:7–15.

Wednesday, February 21 Grateful Hearts

Jesus comments in today's Gospel on the generation's desire for a sign. How many times have you prayed and asked for a sign? Many of us want proof that God will come through for us. Remember that God knows what is best for each of us. During this Lent, seek to discern and appreciate what you have been given and thank God for what he has provided. Today's readings: Jonah 3:1–10; Psalm 51:3–4, 12–13, 18–19; Luke 11:29–32.

Thursday, February 22 The Chair of St. Peter the Apostle

Upon Peter's assertion that Jesus is the Messiah, we hear Jesus tell Peter that he is the rock upon which the Church shall be built. As Christ's followers, we too must voice that Jesus is our Savior. Our faith can be the foundation upon which others' faith can grow. Pope Francis implores us to go out in mission so that through encounters with others, the Church will grow. Our faith is not a secret but a wonderful gift. This Lent, how will you contribute to strengthening the foundation of the Church? Today's readings: 1 Peter 5:1–4; Psalm 23:1–3a, 4–6; Matthew 16:13–19.

Friday, February 23 Continuing the Mission

On the optional Memorial of St. Polycarp, Bishop and Martyr, the Church recalls a second-generation Christian who was a disciple of the apostle John. Before St. Polycarp was burned at the stake, he put his trust in God. He was unafraid of what would happen to him. Pray to be able to trust that God is with you, no matter the trial you face. Today's readings: Ezekiel 18:21–28; Psalm 130:1–2, 3–4, 5–7a, 7bc–8; Matthew 5:20–26.

Saturday, February 24 Learning to Love

“If you love those who love you, what recompense will you have?” we hear in today's Gospel. To love without conditions can be difficult. Yet this is what Jesus asks from us. When we have been wronged, it is tempting to seek revenge. Yet, Jesus shows us a higher path. Instead of revenge, Jesus loves everyone and instructs us to forgive. What would it mean for you to love your enemy and to forgive someone who has hurt you? Today's readings: Deuteronomy 26:16–19; Psalm 119:1–2, 4–5, 7–8; Matthew 5:43–48.
