Behold the wood of the Cross

LENT 2024 begins on February 14

Getting Ready...

Blessed Trinity † Spirit of Christ

Journey to the Foot of the Cross: 10 Things to Remember For Lent

1. Remember the formula.

Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving.

The three things we need to work on during the season.

2. It's a time of prayer. Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.

3. It's a time to fast. With the fasts of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, meatless Fridays, and our personal disciplines interspersed, Lent is the only time many Catholics these days actually fast. And maybe that's why it gets all the attention. "What are you giving up for Lent? Hotdogs? Beer? Jelly beans?" It's almost a game for some of us, but fasting is actually a form of penance, which helps us turn away from sin and toward Christ.

4. It's a time to work on discipline. The 40 days of Lent are also a good time to work on personal discipline in general. Instead of giving something up, it can be doing something positive. "I'm going to exercise more. I'm going to pray more. I'm going to be nicer to my family, friends and coworkers."

5. It's about dying to yourself. The more serious side of Lenten discipline is that it's about more than self-control – it's about finding aspects of yourself that are less than Christ-like and letting them die. The suffering and death of Christ are foremost on our minds during Lent, and we join in these mysteries by suffering, dying with Christ and being resurrected in a purified form.

6. Don't do too much. It's tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it's best to keep it simple and focused. There's a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don't try to cram it all in one Lent. That's a recipe for failure.

7. Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we're all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God's help with renewed urgency and sincerity.

8. Be patient with yourself. When we're confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. "What a bad person I am!" But that's the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.

9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love.

10. Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.

What is a CRS Rice Bowl?

CRS Rice Bowl is a staple on the table of Catholic families across the country during Lent. Rice Bowl has been a part of Blessed Trinity+Spirit of Christ Lenten journey for many years.

This simple cardboard box is a tool for collecting Lenten alms—and comes with a LENTEN CALENDAR that guides us through the 40 days of Lent with activities, reflections and stories.

Pick up your Rice Bowl box
(the Lenten calendar is inside) with
The Bulletin today.

Return it on HOLY THURSDAY, filled with Alms for OPERATION RICE BOWL.

CRS Rice Bowl invites Catholics and faith communities in the United States to encounter God and our global family throughout Lent by practicing the pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Lenten alms donated through CRS Rice Bowl support the work of CRS in more than 120 different countries each year. Twenty-five percent of donations to CRS Rice Bowl stay in the local diocese, supporting hunger and poverty alleviation efforts. Since its inception in 1975, CRS Rice Bowl has raised more than $330 million. For more go to <https://www.crsricebowl.org/>

Shepherds of the Good Shepherd

We offer unique olive wood religious works from the holy city of Bethlehem in efforts to provide for the Christian community in the Holy Land. Your purchase -however- is an act of generosity toward many families who depend on our ministry.

"I am the good shepherd.
The good shepherd lays down his life
for the sheep."
- John 10:11

Visiting Blessed Trinity,
March 16 & 17th

We remember VICTOR AND HUSAM HANNUNEH who have been with us in past years. They bring us the opportunity to purchase beautiful olive wood religious art, as well as the gift of being able to support the people who live in Bethlehem, especially during these days.

Breakfast

This Sunday
following 10 am Mass!

The youth are preparing their annual "get out the fat" breakfast— cheesy hash brown egg bake, bacon, gooey sticky buns, and fresh fruit (to ease our guilt about all the fat). All proceeds benefit our youth.

SPORTSMEN'S BANQUET

The annual fabulous fur, fins and feathers feast is at:

Spirit of Christ Mission
5475 Farm Lane, Lolo

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 5:00 PM --???

This is an evening to share fellowship and our love of the outdoors. Tall tales are encouraged, and you may also bring photos or trophies to substantiate your claims. You don't need to be a hunter or fisherman to join in the fun, just have a love of the outdoors.

Please bring a pot-luck dish to share.

Whole Parish
Faith Formation 2023-24
The Sheepgate: Trespass and Forgiveness

Sunday, February 18
11:30—1:00 pm

Thank you to Dr. Katherine Greiner for a wonderful reflection on the Good Shepherd!

In our next faith formation session, we will reflect on the other “I am” statement in chapter 10 of John’s Gospel where Jesus tells us “I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.” The gate is a threshold where we pass from one world into another—sometimes coming in and sometimes going out. During our time together we will explore this image— what does it mean to be in and what does it mean to go out? Who or what are the thieves and robbers that try to avoid the gate? We will also explore the topics of sin and forgiveness, truly difficult topics in this (and every other) age, remembering that Jesus came to save us from our sins and is the door to salvation.

As we enter Lent, we assess what gets in the way of us following the voice of the Shepherd, so that we may “have life and have it more abundantly.” All are needed and welcome to join in this important discussion.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Feb. 4, 11, & 25th, 10:00 am Mass

Children ages 3-10 are invited to participate in Children’s Liturgy of the Word during the 10 am Mass. They are dismissed at the beginning of the liturgy of the word. We gather in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to hear the readings and Gospel from the Children’s Lectionary. A reflection on the Gospel is given at their level of understanding, followed by the Creed and prayers of the faithful (during which pets and grandparents receive much attention). Children return to the main assembly during the offertory procession. Parents and/or older siblings are invited to accompany young children if desired.

The Gospel
According to John,
Part 2
Mondays, Jan. 8—Feb. 12

The study of the Gospel According to John concludes with Lesson 5 - John 19:38—21. We will be reflecting on the burial of Jesus and John’s story of the resurrection. Thank you to all who have participated in these wonderful discussions on John’s Gospel and especially to Rick Aldred for bringing so much insight and knowledge to our study. Morning session is from 10:30—noon, evening session is 7—8:30 pm.

Seeing the Word

Thursday, Feb. 22, 1:00 pm

Youth Group
Wed., Feb. 21, 7-8:30 pm

Our next regular meeting will be the Wednesday after Ash Wednesday. We will take a deep dive into Lent and why this season is so important to us in our spiritual lives.

Thank you to those who helped with the Junior High Retreat! A fun time was had by all!

Mardi Gras breakfast this Sunday Feb. 11th! Our annual sticky bun, bacon, and egg feast! Thank you for all your help in preparing this feast as we get out the fat before Lent.

ASH WEDNESDAY

For the Journey

Loving Father,
during this Lenten journey,
inspire me to meditate on your sacrifice
as I seek to deepen my relationship with you.

May the ashes on my forehead,
remind me from where I came.

Give me strength,
give me hope.

You who are all-loving,
grant that I may be in communion
with you.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Wednesday, February 14, 2024
Forever Ambassadors of Christ

Today's readings: Joel 2:12–18; Psalm 51:3–4, 5–6ab, 12–13, 14 and 17; 2 Corinthians 5:20—6:2; Matthew 6:1–6, 16–18. Has anyone ever asked you, “What is that on your forehead?” Each year on Ash Wednesday, we Catholics display a sign telling the world that we are followers of Christ, that we are sinful but hopeful in our redemption through the paschal mystery. The ashes remind us that we are in relationship with God, who sent his only Son to redeem humanity through the sacrifice on the cross.

Throughout the Lenten season, as a community, we ask God for his guidance and mercy as we journey together to repentance and prepare to renew our faith at Easter. The season invites us to return to God with our whole hearts so that we may be not only one with him but also ambassadors for Christ in the world.

The Lenten ethos is one of sacrifice, primarily God's sacrifice of Jesus for the salvation of humankind. Through our meager Lenten practices, we join in the sacrifice of Christ in the hope of sharing also in his resurrection. Jesus goes into the desert before he begins his public ministry to be alone with God as he readies himself for what is to come. Jesus put his complete trust in God. This season calls for a pause in our lives through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving so that we too may grow closer to God.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, February 12 Always by Our Side

Lent gives us the opportunity to deepen our relationship with God. James teaches us what unwavering faith can accomplish, while the Pharisees demonstrate how people of little or no faith live. James shows us how faith can overcome challenges that many of us know wholeheartedly and firsthand. We may know people who have no relationship with God. These people need assurance, “a sign” to believe. Let us be that sign. Today’s readings: James 1:1–11; Psalm 119:67, 71, 72, 75, 76; Mark 8:11–13.

Tuesday, February 13 A Spiritual Journey

Have you ever been on a family trip when one member’s sudden exclamation of “I forgot to pack!” is followed by another’s reassuring response, “Don’t stress, we’ll figure something out”? Something similar can happen along our faith journey. In this scenario, God is that voice telling us not to worry, that he will help us prevail. God will give us the fortitude for a spiritual Lenten journey. Today’s readings: James 1:12–18; Psalm 94:12–13a, 14–15, 18–19; Mark 8:14–21.

Wednesday, February 14 Symbol of Life

Today the ashes on our foreheads announce to the world that we acknowledge our sin and have faith in the saving cross of Christ. Despite the visibility of the ashes, they are meant to be a sign of conversion rather than an emblem of pride. Matthew encourages us to go about our lives without flaunting our good deeds. It is enough that we know what we have done for the love of neighbor. Today’s readings: Joel 2:12–18; Psalm 51:3–4, 5–6ab, 12–13, 14 and 17; 2 Corinthians 5:20–6:2; Matthew 6:1–6, 16–18.

Thursday, February 15 Perfect Role Model

Who are your role models? As children, we may name a professional athlete or our parents. As we age and our faith grows along with us, we may begin to be inspired by saints. Today’s Gospel reminds us of our greatest role model, Jesus Christ. Jesus gives us the template for a holy life. He also warns us that his path is not easy and that we must help one another along the journey. Our goal is to continue Jesus’ mission. Today’s readings: Deuteronomy 30:15–20; Psalm 1:1–2; 3, 4, 6; Luke 9:22–25.

Friday, February 16 Caring for Others

Look within and discern whether your external actions reflect your internal thoughts. Do you see a relationship between the way you observe the rules of fasting and abstinence and the way you treat others? Is God pleased that a Church law has been observed when you have been unkind to someone you find annoying? When experiencing a problem with another, ask God to fill you with love toward your neighbor. Strive to live a holy life not for recognition by others but for your love for God. Today’s readings: Isaiah 58:1–9a; Psalm 51:3–4, 5–6a, 18–19; Matthew 9:14–15.

Saturday, February 17 Saying Yes

Many of us have heard the saying “God doesn’t call the qualified, he qualifies the called.” In today’s Gospel, Jesus called Levi, and Levi followed without hesitation. The other apostles followed the same pattern. Each of them left everything behind to join Jesus’ ministry. How can you act as a missionary disciple, inspiring others to do what is needed to follow Jesus? Today’s readings: Isaiah 58:9b–14; Psalm 86:1–2, 3–4, 5–6; Luke 5:27–32.
