Nehemiah 8:10 Third Sunday Ordinary time C

"Celebrating
the
anniversaries
of these four
parishes

-Pope John XXIII,
Holy Family (now
BLESSED TRINITY, and
Spirit of Christ
Mission- is a way
for us to remember that we are all on a
shared journey
of faith... Those who came
before us are
the candle
bearers of our foundation of
faith in Christ."

Joan Butler

"We are sent to
'bring glad
tidings
to the poor;
to proclaim
liberty to
captives;
recovery of
sight to the blind, to let
oppressed
go free.'"

David Neu

"We sing to
worship God
for both happy
and sad
occasions. The combination of
words and
melodies create
a powerful
elixir that
affects the brain
as well as the
heart, soul and
body. ...music
has the ability
to heal..."

Joseph Licitra

"These days of
anniversary
celebration
and memory
are holy to the Lord. So,
celebrate...
Rejoicing in the Lord, with
the whole
assembly.
Must be our strength. In our rejoicing
we give praise,
in all of
creation, for
the God of all
grace has
blessed us this day and all of
the days past.
With all
creatures we
sing..."

Barb Zuuring

From the Homily Sunday January 30, 2022

“But still the song is sung and the music echoes through the wilderness, heard at last by the too many who long to be rescued, to poor widows left alone in the wilderness,
and those kept apart, out of sight and shunned.”

“The music is heard, and the song believed by those who seek refuge from their shame, by the young who hear the music of hope;
and those who long to be rescued from the hands of the wicked.”

“Our music and song of love “bears all things, believers all things, hopes all things,
endures all things.”
